Convocation Participants

Cynthia Clark was born in Prescott, Arizona. She grew up in Bellevue and Seattle, Washington, moving to Provo, Utah, in high school. She has attended Brigham Young University and the University of Utah. Cynthia served on the Provo City Library Board and was instrumental in restoring Academy Square to be the new Provo City Library. She served on the Provo City Council from 2005 to 2009. Cynthia and her husband are the parents of 9 children, 46 grandchildren, and 3 great-grandchildren. She served with her husband when he presided over the Missouri St. Louis Mission from 2010 to 2013. Cynthia has been in school since that time.

Shortly after birth, Dan Ito was diagnosed with spinal muscular atrophy, which generally limits a lifespan to six months. He was raised as the youngest of seven children in Tokyo, Japan. Dan came to the United States in 2010 at the age of 18 to pursue a college degree. He attended the English Language Center at BYU for one year to acquire basic English language skills and then transferred to LDS Business College, earning an associate's degree in business entrepreneurship in 2014. After LDSBC he transferred back to BYU to major in English language and minor in TESOL and civic engagement leadership.

Benjamin Jacob is the oldest of four siblings. Although Benjamin was born in Salt Lake City, he grew up in Indiana, Illinois, Japan, and Provo. After graduating from Timpview High School, he served a mission in Belo Horizonte, Brazil. He majored in interdisciplinary humanities with an emphasis in environmental humanities. He enjoys choral music, hiking, all forms of pasta, and listening to the music of Earth, Wind, and Fire. After graduation he will attend the University of Texas Southwestern Medical School in Dallas, Texas.

Nicholas Shrum was born and raised in the Avenues of Salt Lake City. He began his studies at BYU in the fall of 2015. He will graduate with a bachelor's degree in American studies and plans on graduate work in history to pursue his passion and further his understanding of the American experience. Nicholas recently completed an internship with the Joseph Smith Papers Project at the Church History Library in Salt Lake City and will participate with the BYU Church history travel study program immediately following graduation.

Graduation Speaker

After graduating from BYU with a BA in philosophy and a BFA in studio arts, Travis Anderson completed his MA and PhD in philosophy at Loyola University of Chicago. He has taught in the BYU Philosophy Department for 28 years. During that time he has served as director of the BYU International Cinema, as a department chair, and as a member of numerous university committees, councils, and task forces. He is the recipient of an Alcuin Teaching Award, a BYU Teaching and Learning with Technology Faculty Fellowship, and a General Education Professorship. In 1999 Travis curated an exhibit for the BYU Museum of Art; he was also a practicing artist in the exhibit.

Over the years Dr. Anderson's research has addressed numerous philosophical figures, issues in film theory, the philosophy of art and beauty, and the role of narrative in psychological conceptions of the self. His current scholarship is focused on ethics and the philosophy of architecture. He is married to Diane Anderson, and they are the parents of four children. His interests include gardening, hiking, skiing, motorcycling, and watercolor journaling.
